How to Dispute a Charge on Expedia:

Step-by-Step Guide

+1★860★327★8903(US) or ➡📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

Below is the most efficient method to dispute any unexpected, unauthorized, or incorrect charge on your Expedia account. +1★860★327★8903(US) or ➡📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

Step 1: Review Your Trip Details and Receipts

+1★860★327★8903(US) or ➡📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

Before contacting Expedia, take a moment to gather the necessary information. This will help speed up the process. +1★860★327★8903(US) or ➡📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

Check the following:

- Your Expedia itinerary number +1★860★327★8903(US) or ➡📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)
- Emails from Expedia confirming your booking and charges
- Bank or credit card statements showing the disputed charge
- Any communication with the hotel, airline, or service provider

Often the issue may be clarified by comparing what was originally promised with what actually happened.

Step 2: Log Into Your Expedia Account

+1★860★327★8903(US) or ➡📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

Disputes are easiest to handle when you're logged into your Expedia account.

To access your trips: +1★860★327★8903(US) or ➡️ +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

1. Go to Expedia.com
2. Click Sign In
3. Navigate to My Trips
4. Select the booking associated with the disputed charge

Inside the trip details, you may find options like Request a Change, Request a Refund, or Contact Support, depending on your situation.

Step 3: Try Resolving the Issue with the Service Provider

First +1★860★327★8903(US) or ➡️ +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

Expedia often acts as the middleman. In most cases, the charge may have been issued directly by:

- The hotel
- The airline
- The car rental agency
- A tour operator

If you were charged incorrectly by one of these providers (for example, a hotel charging you a “cleaning fee” you already paid online), Expedia may direct you to contact them first.

Here’s how to check: +1★860★327★8903(US) or ➡️ +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

Within your Expedia itinerary, look for notes like:

- “This property charges resort fees.”
- “You will be charged at the hotel.”

If the provider added a fee you didn’t authorize, contact them directly. If they refuse to help, proceed with Expedia’s dispute process.

Step 4: Contact Expedia Customer Support

+1★860★327★8903(US) or 📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

If reviewing your account doesn't resolve things, the next step is to contact Expedia customer support. They offer multiple ways to reach them:

How to contact Expedia support +1★860★327★8903(US) or 📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

- Live Chat: available on website and mobile app
- Phone Support: varies by region, usually accessible through your itinerary
- Virtual Agent: for basic issues
- Email Form: available through "Help & Support"

Best way to reach a real agent

1. Go to Customer Service → Get Help → Contact Us +1★860★327★8903(US) or 📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)
2. Select the trip in question
3. Choose Billing Issues or Incorrect Charges +1★860★327★8903(US) or 📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)
4. Request to Chat with an Agent or Call +1★860★327★8903(US) or 📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

Be prepared to explain:

- What happened
 - Why the charge is incorrect
 - What resolution you are requesting (refund, removal of charge, etc.)

Step 5: Provide Documentation to Support Your Case

+1★860★327★8903(US) or 📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

Expedia may request proof, especially for disputed charges.

Helpful documentation includes:

- Screenshots of advertised prices
- Booking confirmations
- Cancellation confirmations
- Email conversations with the hotel or airline
- Receipts showing you already paid
- Bank statements showing duplicate or unauthorized charges

Uploading documents through chat or email usually leads to faster processing.

Step 6: Wait for Expedia to Investigate

+1★860★327★8903(US) or 📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

Once you submit your dispute, Expedia will review your case. Depending on the issue, they may:

- Contact the hotel or airline on your behalf
- Ask for additional documentation
- Issue a refund immediately for clear errors
- Open a formal investigation for unauthorized charges

Typical processing times:

- Simple errors: 1–3 business days

- Refund disputes: 7–14 days
- Complex cases involving airlines or third-party providers: up to 30 days

You can check the status under My Trips → Help → Case Status.

Step 7: Dispute the Charge With Your Bank or Credit Card (if needed) +1★860★327★8903(US) or 📞 +1 (860) 327-8903 (UK)

If Expedia or the provider does not resolve the issue—or if the charge is unauthorized—you have the right to file a chargeback with your bank or credit card company.

Banks typically allow disputes on:

- Fraudulent charges
- Services not delivered
- Incorrect billing amounts

A chargeback is often your last resort, but is entirely valid if Expedia does not resolve the issue.

Tip:

Most banks require disputes to be filed within 60–120 days of the transaction.
