

How to Modify a Name on a American Ticket (24/7 Online Quick Call Service)

Booking a flight can be exciting—but realizing you entered your name incorrectly on your American Airlines ticket can be stressful. The good news? American allows passengers to correct or modify names in most cases, 1860_>>327_>>>8903 as long as the change follows their policy.

Whether you made a small spelling mistake or recently changed your legal name, this guide walks you through how to fix your American ticket name online, 1860_>>327_>>>8903 through customer service, and what to expect along the way.

Why Name Accuracy Matters

Airlines must match your ticket name to the name on your government-issued ID. Even a small mistake—like a missing letter or swapped character—can cause problems during check-in or security.

That's why American offers a simple way to edit or correct names.1860_>>327_>>>8903

1. Types of Name Changes American Allows

American Airlines permits several kinds of corrections:

These are free or low-cost fixes:

- Spelling changes (e.g., “Jhon” to “John”)
- Adding/removing a middle name or initial
- Correcting typos

- Changing order of first and last names

✓ Legal Name Changes 1860_>>327_>>>8903

Documentation is required for:

- Marriage
- Divorce
- Court-ordered name changes

✓ Fixing Nicknames to Full Legal Names 1860_>>327_>>>8903

Example: “Liz” → “Elizabeth”

What American does not allow 1860_>>327_>>>8903

You cannot transfer a ticket to a completely different person.
The traveler must remain the same.
